

You've got a million ways to make me happy!
it's so easy for you, you dont have to try.

don't tell me your Reasons
Don't tell me your Reasons
I dont give a damn why!

I remember all the bullshit that you told me!

your own image of the truth makes you blind!

Don't hand me your Reasons
Don't hand me your Reasons
I dont want your reasons.

Now you see how everything is broken

Spoken like there's no hope inside!
and finally the veil begins to open
At last we see its only darkness betwixt the light!

I've got my Reasons
I've got my Reasons
