

DOWN TONIGHT

I got a woman
Makes it alright
I got a woman
Bedsheets of white
There's nobody else in this world
But you and me tonight

Let me get down tonight
Down where its warm
Out of the cold, Baby
Into the storm
I just want to be close to you, baby
I'm feeling down tonight

I Need your love
More than anything
Even this drinking
Don't ease my pain
Just give me all you got to give
Soothe my desert with your rain

Without your love
I feel so alone
Travelling hippie
Wandering home
Nothing makes sense in this world
But the Ocean, and the Stone
